

Fairfield Ludlowe High School Top 100
Summer Reading 2017

FLHS students have been reading all year long. This list reflects student and staff favorites from this year. It is a long list with something for every interest.

We know you will read many books this summer. You are required to read at least one from this list. If you are reading an assigned summer book for an AP class, the AP book will fulfill this requirement.

Stop by the FLHS library to check out books for before vacation and return them in September. Download e-books and audiobooks from OverDrive all summer long at <http://overdrive.fairfieldschools.org/>. Remember that you can also check out books from the Fairfield Public Library throughout the summer.

When you return to school in the fall, plan to talk or write about the book you read. Your teacher will share the details about the activity with you in the first few days of school.

Happy reading – Enjoy the summer!

Zookeepers Wife, The	Ackerman, Diane	Historical Fiction	After their zoo was bombed, Polish zookeepers Jan and Antonina Zabinski managed to save over three hundred people from the Nazis by hiding refugees in the empty animal cages. With animal names for these "guests," and human names for the animals, it's no wonder that the zoo's code name became "The House Under a Crazy Star." Best-selling naturalist and acclaimed storyteller Diane Ackerman combines extensive research and an exuberant writing style to re-create this fascinating, true-life story--sharing Antonina's life as "the zookeeper's wife," while examining the disturbing obsessions at the core of Nazism.
